
Stairway to Heaven

There's a lady who's sure all that glitters is gold and she's buying the stairway to heaven. When she gets there she knows if the stores are all closed with a word she can get what she came for. And she's buying the stairway to heaven. There's a sign on the wall but she wants to be sure, because you know sometimes words have two meanings. In a tree by the brook there's a songbird who sings sometimes all of our thoughts are misgiven. There's a feeling I get when I look to the West. And my spirit is crying for leaving. In my thoughts I have seen rings of smoke through the trees. And the voices of those who stand looking. And it's whispered that soon if we all call the tune then the piper will lead us to reason and a new day will dawn for those who stand long and the forests will echo with laughter and it makes me wonder. If there's a bustle in your hedgerow don't be alarmed now it's a spring clean for the May-Queen. Yes there are two paths you can go by. But in the long run there's still time to change the road you're on. Your head is humming and it won't go - in case you don't know. The piper's calling you to join him. Dear lady can you hear the wind blow. And did you know that your stairway lies on the whispering wind. And as we wind down the road Our shadows taller than our soul. There walks a lady we all know. Who shines white light and wants to show how every thing still turns to gold. And if you listen very hard. The tune will come to you at last. When all are one and one is all. To be a rock and not to roll.
